

Paw Swipe

Paw Swipe is a full stack web application made for matching animals and humans. The database was built using SQL and managed in PostgreSQL. The database is run on a local server built in Java, allowing the data to be used in an API. The API is then accessed through Javascript and presented to the user in a fully functional website.

Desktop Prototype

(to see Admin view press Shift + A on the login page)

Mobile Prototype

(to see Admin view press Shift + A on the login page)

Paw Swipe 7 Functional Requirements

Admin User

- As an admin user I can create, update, delete and view animal details.
- As an admin user I can create, update, delete and view shelter details.

Anon User

- As an anonymous user I can view animal cards.
- As an anonymous user I can search/filter animal cards
- As an anonymous user I can view shelters

Registered User

- As a registered user I can save animals to a favorites list/remove animals from list
- As a registered user I can view my favorite animals page